

Airline Cancellation Policy

At Bucketlist Destination, we strive to provide a seamless travel experience; however, airline cancellations are subject to the fare rules set by the respective airlines. Please read our detailed Airline Cancellation Policy below before proceeding with any changes or cancellations to your flight bookings.

About this Policy

Non-Refundable Flight Tickets

For flight tickets marked as “Non-Refundable”, no refunds will be issued in case of cancellation. If you choose to cancel your booking, you will not be eligible for any reimbursement, and the total amount paid will be forfeited.

Refundable Flight Tickets

For flight tickets marked as “Refundable”, the cancellation refund will be processed based on the specific terms outlined under the airline’s Cancellation Policy at the time of booking. Refund amounts may vary depending on the airline’s fare conditions, cancellation timelines, and applicable penalties. Travelers are advised to review these details on their tickets before proceeding with any cancellations.

International Exchange Rate Impact on Refunds

For international flight cancellations, the refund amount may fluctuate due to variations in foreign exchange rates. Refunds will be processed in the same currency as the booking, but the final credited amount may differ based on the exchange rate at the time of processing.

Bucketlist Destination is not responsible for any grounded, canceled, delayed, or rescheduled flights by the airline. In case of such disruptions, passengers must directly contact the respective airline for alternative arrangements, compensation, or rescheduling options as per airline policies.

Cancellation & Rescheduling Requests

All flight cancellation or rescheduling requests must be made directly by the respective airline. Bucketlist Destination does not have control over airline refund processing timelines. The realization of refunds is solely subject to the airline’s internal refund process, and we advise customers to check directly with the airline for status updates.

Mandatory Web Check-in Policy

Certain domestic and international airlines have made web check-in mandatory before arriving at the airport. Failure to complete the web check-in process may result in additional charges at the airport, which must be borne by the traveler. Bucketlist Destination is not liable for any extra fees incurred due to non-compliance with the airline’s web check-in policy and will not provide refunds in such cases.
